

Street Food

Great for events where guests are free to mingle. Get the feeling of being at a street food market, eating something interesting and bursting with flavor, it helps to provide that energetic festival style vibe.

This concept also works really well for evening wedding food. It perfectly accompanies the drinking and dancing into the evening!

- We serve from our Full Flavour street food stall for guests to come and collect at their leisure.

- The food is served on compostable plates/ bowls with bamboo cutlery and napkins
